

<blockquote> <h1>Blimpie Gets Rich, But Bluto Get's Slaughtered ...</h1> </blockquote>  They say "Big Boys Don't Cry" so maybe David Brown, Esq. won't squeal like a lawyer when he answers the Order To Show Cause as to the Moon Thai & Japanese, Inc., et al. bankruptcy cases. ♦ Ooops, a false declaration in which Big Dave swore he had no connection with the Debtor and all of the parties, but he left out that his firm concurrently represented the principal of the Debtors in a bankruptcy case. Though the string of misconduct extends far beyond the Conflict of Interest related Fraud Upon the Court as it seems the foundation of Brown's Li'l Bankruptcy Racket is just a microcosm of BigLaw's Fake-Justice charade:  They say, particularly bankruptcy lawyers, that 'Size Doesn't Matter'. ♦ So why should little bucket shop bankruptcy buffoons be held to a higher standard than the BigLaw crooks which compose the majority of the AmLaw100? What is it about the State Of Florida? It's supposed to be "The Sunshine State" and yet there is so much sunlight desperately needed to disinfect the corrupt courts and self regulation charade down there: Barron's Stores, Judge Paul Hyman, the felon James F. Walker represented via fraud on the court by Gary J. Rotella, Esq. , dirty lawyer Lewis B. Freeman . . . ♦ it's like a third world country or something!

And what does the California Bar do? They coordinate with wrongdoers to protect their connections and assist behind the scenes so that the Whistleblowers who bring the attorney misconduct & Fraud Upon The Court to light are punished! Shout out to the DOJ in Virginia running Internet Explorer version 11 released in 2013 on top of Windows 10 ... We sure feel safe in your expert hands ;-)
